

2DEX – Creative/Marketing Internship

Five Vector Inc. bridges the gap between the different branches of the entertainment industry. By creating a network of synergic entities, Five Vectors Inc. is building entertainment products carefully curated to specific audiences and built to change with the market.

Based on a strong belief in the ever-increasing visualization of music through video platforms and streaming, the Five Vectors Inc. ecosystem uses contents as a full-blown marketing instrument to create relevance for products that will enhance the user experience.

2DEX is a gaming music company striving to become the number one knowledge center of the gaming/esports and music overlap to create better products, events, games and experiences. Based in Los Angeles with offices in Berlin, 2DEX is building a network of talented artists and producers to make music dedicated to gamers worldwide.

What you'll do

As an active member of the team, you will assist in the daily tasks along the production line, from artists scouting to tracks masters deliveries, and you will take part in the curation and management of the different outlets in the Five Vectors Portfolio, including but not limited to 2DEX, Daily Playlists, DSP profiles, various Instagram channels.

We invite you into a motivating environment, friendly and casual work conditions and a strong exposure to the business. This is a unique opportunity to develop your skills and leverage your professional exposure.

Key Responsibilities

- Together with the Creative Manager you'll scout and sign talents from the music world to build the 2DEX music catalogue. You'll take part in the elaboration of Producer briefings and assist in delivering the masters for distribution purposes.
- You will create and post content for the different gaming music Instagram channels in the company's portfolio and find ways to interact with the community and with the company's other products.
- Alongside the Head of Marketing, you will manage the Daily Playlists backend by handling tracks and playlists submissions, updating playlists, reaching out to potential partners, and oversee community management and users' emails.
- Participate in all stages of the company's development and growth, including company functions and industry events.

Duration: Minimum 3 months

Contract: Full-time Internship Agreement

Compensation: 500 EUR

Start date: As Soon As Possible

Location: Berlin, DE
